Sub: Electoral rolls - House of the People and Madras Legislative Assembly - Annual revision, 1953 - Non-statutory informal publication of preliminary electoral rolls - Publication of notice in Form V

Ref: Electoral rolls (Assembly and Parliamentary) (Annual Revision, 1953) Circular No.3 (Memo No.978/53-3 Public (Elections) dated 15-5-53)

As laid down in paragraph 4(2) of the Circular cited the informal publication of the draft electoral rolls is common for both the Assembly and Parliamentary constituencies and only one copy of the roll need be published in each such place by the Electoral Registration Officer of the Assembly constituency. All Electoral Registration Officers are informed that the notice in Form V to be published along with the preliminary roll in such places should also be common in respect of the Assembly and Parliamentary constituencies. In the space provided for entering the xx name of the constituency at the top of Form V, the names of both the Assembly constituency and relevant Parliamentary constituency should be entered one over the other. Only the Electoral Registration
